

WHEREAS, the Realtors of South Dakota have zealously guarded the principle of private ownership of property, and have contributed toward public confidence in real property ownership by their pledge to uphold the strict Code of Ethics of the National Association of Real Estate Boards; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of our state have benefited in countless ways from the efforts of Realtors in civic affairs, charitable causes, and community projects; and

WHEREAS, Realtors have assumed these responsibilities with credit, by encouraging wise utilization of the land, by advocating programs fostering home ownership, by solving problems in our cities, towns, and our environment through the activities of their broad Make America Better Program, and by emphasizing the positive goal to "Sell America First -- Everday";

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 21 through 27, 1972 as and urge all citizens to join me in saluting the Realtors for their services, programs and professional dedication.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 9th day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-two.
